Meditation

“The wrath which God visits on sinful humanity consists simply in letting humanity have its own way... The permissiveness we celebrated in a ‘world come of age’ we now find to be nothing more than the permission to fall deeper into sin. When God visits his wrath, he withdraws his restraining hand and lets his rebellious creation do as it pleases.... Letting us have our own way is not a measure of God’s grace, it is the visitation of his wrath. The discipline which does not let us do whatever comes into our heads is not a form of evil, it is the very essence of grace.”

Paul Achtemeier, Romans—Interpretation, 1985
